POSTHUMOUS BIRTHDAY EXHIBITION

IMAGES OF THE CITY AND REFLECTIONS OF PEOPLE / ARDEL GALLERY OF MODERN ART / JUN 15-JUL 21

This year would have marked the 90th birthday of National Artist Chalood Nimsamer, who was one of the pioneers of Thai contemporary art. Therefore, Chalood Nimsamer Collection and Archive, in collaboration with Ardel Gallery of Modern Art, celebrates the occasion with this art exhibition, which expresses Chalood’s view on the city, its changes from past to present and diversity of people living in it. It features both artworks that have been exhibited before as well as ones that are specially selected for this posthumous show.

● Tue-Sat 10.30am-7pm [Sun opens until 5.30pm] / Ardel Gallery of Modern Art, 99/45-16, Moo 18, Boromrachachonnane Road / www.ardelgallery.com, 02-422-2092.

MAKING THAI CULTURE POP
 ART ROTATION SERIES
 / 137 PILLARS SUITES & RESIDENCES / UNTIL JUL 11

Jirapat Tatsanasomboon is the fourth artist to join the ongoing Art Rotation series at 137 Pillars Suites & Residences. Known for his colourful pop art juxtaposition of traditional Thai aesthetic with western and pop culture icons, the award-winning artist continues exploring the interaction between eastern and western cultures, as well as modern and traditions. Think Thai-ified Vincent van Gogh carrying his famous The Starry Night while standing in front of The Great Wave off Kanagawa by Japanese artist Hokusai. Jirapat has shown his works domestically and internationally, including Asia Art Now at the Korean Cultural & Arts Foundation in 2003 to Arteclasia 10 in Argentina in 2010. His amazing [and amusing] works are now on display at the Baan Borneo Club and Louie's Tiffin Grill at 137 Pillars Suites & Residences Bangkok.

● 11am-8pm / 137 Pillars Suites & Residences, Level 26, Sukhumvit 39 / call 02-079-7000 to arrange a visit to view the artworks.
